

Job description

Forensic Engineering firm seeking a Civil and/or Structural Engineer, or Engineer Intern to join our professional staff.

Engineer duties include:

Providing consulting and forensic engineering services to our clients.

Site inspections and investigations.

Investigation of property damage resulting from catastrophic events.

Research and analysis of relative information and data.

Engineering analysis to determine cause, origin, extent, and limits of such property damage.

Develop scope of repair and restoration.

Preparation of written report of findings.

Management of multiple congruently ongoing assignments

Qualifications:

Bachelor of Science in Civil/Structural Engineering

P.E. License (Preferred)

E.I. License (Required)

Experience with residential, commercial, and/or industrial construction practices is desirable.

Excellent verbal and written communication skills.

Ability to travel locally and regionally.

Ability to work in inclement weather and adverse conditions.

Ability to climb ladders, work in high areas, such as roofs, scaffolding, etc., access areas requiring physical agility.

Our team of engineers, scientists and technicians have specialized in the analysis of disasters, insurance claims, accidents and product failures for over 35 years. Quick & Associates offers a comprehensive array of consulting and forensic engineering services to the insurance industry, legal profession and general business community for technical assistance of claims and dispute resolution.

Salary based upon experience.

Information about our company can be found at www.quickforensics.com

Please submit all inquiries and/or resumes to jbordelon@quickforensics.com